CNO Visits JBPHH During 10-Day Indo-Pacific Trip

During his 10-day trip across the Indo-Pacific, Chief of Naval Operations Adm. Daryl Caudle met with thousands of Sailors supporting vital missions and strengthening U.S. alliances. While in Hawaii, Caudle spoke with Sailors during an all hands call on Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam (JBPHH), viewed unaccompanied housing on JBPHH, toured the Red Hill Bulk Fuel Storage Facility, and visited the future Dry Dock 5 at the Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard and Intermediate Maintenance Facility.

U.S. Pacific Fleet Hosts Combat Readiness & Warfighting Summit

Adm. Steve Koehler, commander, U.S. Pacific Fleet, spoke about the importance of maintaining readiness at the COMPACFLT Combat Readiness and Warfighting Summit held last week on Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam. The summit brought together commanders and senior enlisted leaders from the U.S. Pacific Fleet enterprise to foster collaboration and ensure alignment with the commander's guidance. Chief of Naval Operations Adm. Daryl Caudle also delivered remarks.

Navy Volunteers Help Care for Haiku Valley

Volunteers from Defense Information Systems Agency – Pacific, Defense Logistics Agency Pearl Harbor, 17th Operational Weather Squadron, 21st Dental Company, and Navy Region Hawaii joined Ko'olau Foundation for cultural service work in Haiku Valley on Sunday. These volunteer efforts, organized through Laulima Navy, reinforce cohesion, team building, and leadership for personnel and their families in Hawaii. Community service is an important way to build and strengthen networks that sustain readiness at home and when deployed.

Cmdr. Michael Humara Assumes Command of USS Missouri

Cmdr. Michael Humara relieved Cmdr. Georag Andrews as commanding officer of Virginia-class fast-attack submarine USS Missouri (SSN 780) during a change of command ceremony last week on Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam. Humara most recently served as the special assistant for enlisted personnel, policy and training at Naval Reactors. Missouri is assigned to Submarine Squadron 7 and is capable of supporting various missions, including anti-submarine warfare, strike warfare, special operations forces support, and reconnaissance.

U.S. Navy Joins 15th Wing in Joint Personnel Rescue Training

Navy sailors from Helicopter Maritime Strike Squadron 37 participated in a personnel rescue training event in support of exercise Joint Pacific Multinational Readiness Center 26-1 off the coast of Waianae earlier this month. Exercise JPMRC 26-01 is a large-scale joint and multinational exercise led by the U.S. Army designed to train units and leaders in the region's complex and austere jungle, arctic, and archipelago environments, replicating real-world conditions, contributing to integrated deterrence and regional security in the Indo-Pacific.

This Week in History: November 28, 1911

The cruiser USS California (ACR 6) arrived in Honolulu Harbor on Nov. 28, 1911. Onboard was Rear-Admiral Chauncey Thomas, commander of the Pacific Fleet. The ship's arrival would soon mark the beginning of a new era in the Navy's history in Hawaii when the California would sail into the newly dredged channel of Pearl Harbor on Dec. 14, 1911, becoming the first large warship to navigate the harbor.

Laulima Navy underscores our responsibility to the community and the ways we work alongside partners to help and support our neighbors. Service to others and a commitment to the greater good are values we hold in high regard. It is a privilege for all of us to call Hawaii home and we seek every opportunity we can to show how much we treasure this place. Scan the QR code to learn more about Laulima Navy.
